TOOK THE DEADLY GAS

Wholesale Suicide in a Hotel in New York City

DEED DELIBERATELY PLANNED

A Woman and Four Children Found Dead in One Room—An Investigation Already Begun.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Oct. 1.—A woman registered at the West Shore Hotel last night, at forty second street and eleventh avenue, by the name of Mrs. Caroline Pomelius, from West Point. Her four children were with her and they were all given two rooms together. At eight o'clock this morning while a servant was passing the rooms the odor of gas was noticed. The servant informed the clerk, and on investigation found the woman and her four children in the two rooms dead from the effects of inhaling the deadly illuminating gas.

The crime was evidently carefully and deliberately planned, as all the cracks and the windows were found stuffed with clothing. The woman was about forty years old, and the children were from three to fifteen. All were well dressed. The coroner was notified and an investigation begun.

SALISBURY BICYCLE MEET.

The Boys Had a Good Time Together. Not a Success Financially.

W. A. Wingate is back from the Salisbury meet and says the affair was delightful in every sense. The races were well arranged and well managed and the meet will be pleasantly remembered by visitors and racing men. Charlotte, Concord, Statesvill, Hickory and other towns had men on the track. The time was not very good in some of the races.

The events were as follows:

Half mile open:—won by W. L. Allison, of Statesville; time 1:13, 3-5.

Two mile handicap:—Tony Taylor, of Salisbury; time 4:57, 1-4.

Fourth mile open:—J. M. Self, of Hickory; time 0:35 3-5.

One mile open:—O. L. Barringer, of Charlotte, time 1:22 2-5.

Half mile open for Rowan riders:—G. A. Bingham, time 1:15.

One mile team race:—Osmond L. Barringer, of Charlotte, time 3:25 1-2.

Half mile championship for one legged riders:—Harvey Keever, of Hickory, time 1:34 2-5.

Five Mile handicap:—Ernest Ross, of Charlotte, time 14:14 1-5.

Mile championship for Western Carolina not awarded.

THE NEW SPANISH CABINET.

Crisis Will Not be Passed for a Week or More.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Madrid, Oct. 1.—The Liberals are preparing to give an ovation to Senor Sagasta, their leader, upon his arrival here today. It is taken for granted that he will form a cabinet which will be made up as follows: Senor Gamazo, Minister of Foreign Affairs; Moret Y Prendergast, Minister of Colonies; General Morea, Minister of War. It is not expected that the cabinet crisis will be ended for another week.

Fifty Families Homeless.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Chicago, Oct. 1.—Half of the village of Willow Springs, 16 miles south of here, burned this morning. Fifty families are left homeless by the fire and the best business buildings of the town are ruined. There were many narrow escapes from death. The loss is over fifty thousand dollars.

Old Age Telling on the Pope.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Oct. 1.—The Globe will say this afternoon that it has received information to the effect that the Pope's weakness is increasing to an alarming degree. The church dignitaries are afraid he will not rally from the extreme feebleness and exhaustion which he now betrays.

Bank Goes Into Liquidation.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

Pottsville, Pa., Oct. 1.—The government national bank here has gone into liquidation after an existence of 35 years. The bank officers say the liquidation is owing to differences among the stockholders, and not to financial embarrassment.

Fever Stops Freight Traffic.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

San Francisco, Oct. 1.—As a consequence of the yellow fever quarantine in the southern States, the Southern Pacific Company has decided to close its gulf route to all freight traffic.

POINTS FROM HIGH POINT.

Personal and Local Affairs Briefly Mentioned.

TELEGRAM BUREAU,
HIGH POINT, N. C., Oct. 1, '97.

Prof. Crowell has furnished me with the following statement regarding the school:

"In a private letter to me Supt. Howell, of Raleigh, says: 'I read with interest the account of your opening, and I am glad to see the schools are so popular as to necessitate addition to faculty so early. It speaks well for High Point.' Well, so it is, brother Howell, but the half has never been told. Not only was the opening beyond all expectation, but quite a number have entered since, several from beyond the corporate limits, and parties are engaging for residences and farms that they may join with us. * * * Give us just a few more days and we will compare notes with schools that have been in operation for years. * * * But, popular and worthy as our school is, however proud of it we may be, if we are content to rejoice at the opening we shall soon drift with the winds and wreck on a hidden reef. Our opening is the beginning of a wonderful history; yea, must be, and every parent and friend will write a line. * * * It is a more secure and perpetual foundation for your school that I so earnestly desire. It is better facilities, greater opportunities, the productions of many minds that I long to bring before your children. It is for the pleasure, the profit, the edification of the town that I request you to give us money and books that these desires may be fulfilled. Send them along. It is money compounded."

Trinity High School has over eighty pupils and is doing well.

Wm. C. Hammer, editor of the Asheboro Courier, spent last night in High Point.

G. G. Hendricks, Randolph county clerk, was in town yesterday.

J. H. West, of Greensboro, was registered at the Jarrell last night.

Edgar Widby, en route to Richmond spent yesterday with his sister, Mrs. A. J. Irven.

Jas. K. Mebane, of the Merchants Grocery Co., was at the Bellevue yesterday.

Mrs. W. L. Harrell, who has been suffering with typhoid fever, is reported to be doing nicely now.

Mrs. Charlie Hunter returned to Greensboro yesterday after a visit to her parents at Aberdeen.

Ernest Carr drove over from Trinity last night to meet his father, Prof. C. W. Carr, who came down from Greensboro to spend Sunday at home.

Mrs. Ingold and child and Miss Ellen Burns, of Asheboro, came over to Miss Venetia Smith's opening yesterday.

Misses Marjorie and Francis Lyon passed through last night returning home after a visit to friends at Thomasville.

T. J. Copeland and Miss Marsh, his wife's sister, passed through town this morning.

J. H. Pallas and W. K. Muscat, advertising agents of Robinson & Franklin's show, are in the city with their posters and paste pots.

Miss Lucy Coffin, who has been on a visit for some time at the home of W. H. Ragan, left this morning for Greensboro.

Rev. J. B. Richardson left today for Reidsville.

A good size delegation of Juniors from here will attend the flag raising of the Centreville Council at Waughtown tomorrow.

The Southern's supply of tickets were destroyed by fire at Washington, the other day. Mr. Tate says he has enough on hand to last about two weeks.

Warner for U. S. Senator.

Cincinnati, Sept. 30.—A special from Columbus, O., says: Gov. A. J. Warner, of Marietta, in an interview published here today, formally announces his candidacy for United States Senate at the hands of the Ohio Legislature to be elected this fall. He pledges his whole time and continuous effort from this time for the election of a Democratic Legislature, to this end.

Train Tumbles Through A Trestle.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Philadelphia, Oct 1.—A trestle on the Philadelphia and Reading railroad at tenth and Morris streets, collapsed this morning and the train was precipitated to the street. Workmen were under the trestle at the time but no lives were lost though two men were injured.

IT BEATS THE YELLOW FEVER

An English Town Ravaged by Malignant Typhoid

1172 CASES; 46 DEATHS REPORTED

The Town is Panic-Stricken and People Leaving Their Homes—Physicians and Nurses Needed.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Oct. 1.—The prevalence of malignant typhoid fever, of which mention has been made several times, at Maidstone, county of Kent, is increasing and trade is absolutely at a stand still. There are now one thousand, one hundred and seventy two cases, and forty-six deaths reported. There were six deaths last night.

Some of the inhabitants are panic-stricken at the alarming state of affairs. There is a continual tolling of the church bells, denoting the burial of the dead. Many of the people are leaving their homes, and physicians and nurses are badly needed.

ELEVEN NEW CASES.

No Further Violence Feared by Hospital Authorities.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New Orleans, Oct. 1.—No deaths were reported here during the night, and eight people were discharged from the detention camp.

Up to noon the board of health received reports of 11 new cases of yellow fever. There were also reports of cases at the yellow fever hospital. The officers are thoroughly fumigating the structure.

The people living near the hospital have concluded that there is no reason why violence should be offered, and the health officers consider that there is no cause to apprehend further violence.

Three New Cases at Edwards.

Edwards, Miss., Oct. 1.—At 10 a. m. today three new cases of yellow fever were reported here.

CONTENTS OF THE WHITE BOOK.

Germany's Hostile Attitude Toward Greece Clearly Revealed.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Athens, Oct. 1.—The contents of the White Book relating to the peace negotiations presented to the chamber yesterday are now generally known. It confirms the statement that Germany threatened to withdraw from the concert of the powers in the event that Greece did not accept the peace conditions. It also reports regarding the warning to Greece which the French Minister of Foreirn Affairs, M. Honotaux, issued on May 30th, relative to the internal situation of the country declaring that any attack upon the Grecian dynasty would threaten the very existence of Greece.

GRUB ENOUGH AT DAWSON CITY.

Provisions to Last Four Thousand People Through the Winter.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Victoria, B. C. Oct. 1.—The Dominion Government Surveyor in the Yukon country, William Ogilvie, arrived at Victoria today. He says there are provisions enough at Dawson City to last four thousand people through the winter. The situation will not be so hard as was feared.

FIRE IN A STEAMSHIP.

She is Loaded With Eighteen Hundred Bales of Cotton.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Galveston Tex. Oct. 1.—Late last night fire was discovered in hold number two of the British Steamship, Maritine. The hold contains eighteen hundred bales of cotton which will have to be taken out and discharged before the extent of damage can be ascertained.

President Back in Washington.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Oct. 1.—The President and party have arrived in Washington. Quite a crowd had gathered at the station and both the President and Mrs. McKinley acknowledged the greeting by smiling and bowing pleasantly. They entered a carriage and were driven to the White House.

Besides the President and his wife the party consisted of Gen. McKenna, Miss Mabel McKinley and Mr. Corleyon, one of the White House clerks. Postmaster General Gary boarded the train at Baltimore.

The President had hardly reached the White House before Secretary Sherman appeared and held a brief consultation, presumably with reference to the fall of the Spanish cabinet.

YELLOW FEVER SUMMARY.

Sixty Deaths and 683 Cases Make up Yellow Jack's Record.

Washington, Sept. 30.—A summary of the progress of the yellow fever epidemic up to the close of the day yesterday, made in the office of the surgeon general of the Marine Hospital service gives a total of 683 cases and 60 deaths in the entire country, distributed by cities and towns as follows:

Edwards, Miss., 211 cases and 6 deaths; New Orleans, 203 cases and 24 deaths; Biloxi, Miss., 235 cases and 7 deaths; Mobile, Ala., up to Tuesday night, 58 cases and 8 deaths; Scranton, Miss., 39 cases and 3 deaths; Ocean Springs, Miss., 23 cases and 6 deaths; Barkley, Miss., 10 cases and 4 deaths; Cairo, Ill., 4 cases; Atlanta, Ga., Perkinton, Miss., Louisville, Ky. and Beaumont, Texas, 1 case each, the case at Louisville and Beaumont proving fatal.

Arrested For Counterfeiting.

Washington, Oct. 1.—A telegram received at the Secret Service Bureau announces the arrest at South Chicago of Leopold Irmen, for counterfeiting silver dollars. His outfit also was captured. It is believed that Irmen is the maker of the very fine counterfeit silver dollars which have been in circulation in Chicago, and his capture, therefore, is regarded as exceptionally important.

A SAMPLE.

The Caucasian of yesterday pays its compliments to our esteemed contemporary, the News & Observer, to the tune of a column and a half. We cull this one choice flower from the mammoth bouquet:

"It has made a bargain and sale of its columns and now says what it is told to say."

We give this as a fair specimen of Mr. Butler's journalism. Every paper that declines to yelp in unison with the Caucasian is straightway declared an "organ of the monopolies." The senator, perhaps, learned a good many things in Washington, but it is also evident that there are a few needful things which he did not learn. The more one sees and hears of Mr. Butler, the more strongly is the conviction forced home that twelve years of that gentleman will be just a little too much for even the patient Old North State.

The man who cannot rise above the language and the methods of a pot, house politican, is very much out of place in the senate of the United States. That Senator Butler cannot do so, we offer this additional sentence taken from an editorial referring to the venerable editor of the Elizabeth City Economist: "The poor, drivelling, spiteful, ignorant old man," etc. The age of the editor of the Economist should have guaranteed him immunity from the epithets; the position of Mr. Butler should raise him above such puerile abuse. For the sake of the people of the state he should keep his skirts clear of the taint of the black-guard.

IT was not Greensboro that said she was going to "kick the life out of Charlotte"; Charlotte said it herself. We thought it would be base ingratitude to spoil such pleasant anticipation by a denial.

THE British Navy is also beginning to give evidence of its amphibious powers. Two torpedo boats climbed up on her chalk cliffs and broke themselves in two.

NO CHARGES ATTACHED.

W. J. Bryan passed through the wreck of the Democratic party last fall, and escaped unscathed from a railroad disaster this year, but like John P. Altgeld, his co-laborer, not even a railroad wreck can save them from the rapid approach of an umbrious and opaque oblivion.—Union Republican.

But possibly a railroad disaster joined with the presistent efforts of the Republican press, from one end of the country to the other, may stave off the oblivion for a time. There is no man living who receives quite so much free advertising as Mr. Bryan. The gratuitous funeral notices that he has received would plaster his native State like a scrapbook. Mr. Bryan is today merely a private citizen, one of admittedly blameless character, and it is difficult to see the purport of all the things that are written about him. Mr Bryan is not the nominee of the Democratic party for any office, we are assured that he is dead and buried politically, then why should he be denied the privilege granted the remains of the humblest citizen, the privilege of sleeping in peace? It is a fact, however, that not even President McKinley is the object of such close scrutiny and copious criticism as Mr. Bryan. To the man up a tree all this must be a bit puzzling.

THE efforts of the Hon. Marcus A. Hanna on the Ohio stump have a tendency to emphasize the fact that a great financier is not necessarily a great orator.

JAPAN'S hint that $100,000 might reconcile her to the annexation of Hawaii clinches her claim to having adopted western civilization.

IT was a truly unkind cut in the young Hawaiians to sing "she may have seen better days" to Ex-queen Lil.

POSSIBLY Governor Pingree has gone to Venezuela in search of larger potato patches to conquer.

GENERAL NEWS IN A NUTSHELL.

Sixty-nine fourth-class postmasters were appointed yestsrday.

Joseph Proctor, the veteran actor, is critically ill at his Boston home.

The Choctaw Nation in Arkansas will sell their territorial rights and remove to Mexico.

The national irrigation congress, at Lincoln, Neb., elected J. M. Carey, of Wyoming, president.

The daily output of the Leadville (Col:) mines is about 2,000 tons of ore worth about $20 a ton.

Thousands of New Yorkers inspected the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, the biggest steamship afloat.

The New York grand jury refused to indict the tax commissioners of the city, as requested by the Central Labor Union.

New York republicans have no hope of electing Gen. Tracy mayor on a straight ticket against Seth Low and Tammany.

Copper money is at a premium in China, and the business of that country is mainly conducted on a copper basis.

An effort is being made in New York to have John Y. McKane, imprisoned for election frauds, released from the penitentiary.

The New York board of education will make the experiment of teaching politics to a class of men in an evening high school.

The Massachusetts republican state convention met in Boston and renominated the present state officers, including Gov. Roger Wolcott.

Mayor Quincy, of Boston, and others addressed the national conference of mayors and city councilmen, now in session at Columbus, Ghio.

The full report of the special board appointed by the Navy Department will show that the government's docks are in a dangerous condition.

James Juvenal, an oarsman of reputation, and Annie Gilbert, rode from Philadelphia to New York on a tandem and were married by an alderman in the latter city.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, in his annual report, will ask increased appropriatious for the bureau of animal industry, the weather bureau and the farmers' bulletins.

Several women were drawn as jurors at Fort Scott, Kan., but the Judge decided that they are not eligible to service under the Constitution, which stipulates that male electors shall be jurors.

A proposition is reported to have been made by Cluas Spreckels by the terms of which he is to withdraw his opposition to the annexation treaty in return for commercial favors bestowed by Hawaii.

The officials at the Japanese legation in Washington have no information in regard to Hawaii's rumored offer of $100,000 indemnity to Japan. The State Department denies all knowledge of the matter.

The Spanish cabinet resigned yesterday. The Queen Regent accepted the resignations, but asked General Azcarraga to continue in office until a solution of the crisis is found. Senor Sagasta, the liberal leader, was telegraphed for, and it is believed he will be asked to form a cabinet.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents and $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

NEWS OF THE TAR HEEL STATE.

There was only one death in Salisbury during the month of September.

The principal of Salisbury Graded schools is being tried for whipping a boy.

June Goodwin's barn, a few miles from Raleigh, burned, entailing a considerable loss on the owner.

Hamp Miller, formerly state chemist, has accepted a position at Peace Institute to teach chemistry.

Mr. H. A. Foote has sold the Carthage Blade to the Blade Publishing Company, of which Mr. John B. Campbell is manager.

A large force of hands are at work on the streets of Tarboro putting new water works in. The city has made a coutract with the American Pipe Co. to furnish the piping.

Secretary of State John Sherman sends the Governor a formal invitation for the State to make an exhibit at the Paris Exposition in 1900, in accordance with the act of Congress inviting all States to participate.

Governor Russell is invited to open the Winston Tobacco Association Fair November 3d, to participate in a parade and be the guest of the association. He is also invited to open the colored State Fair at Raleigh November 2d.

Governor Russell denies that he said that the Republican party in North Carolina could carry the State without Populist aid. No Republican appears to lean more on the Populists than he. Some person misrepresented him in the Washington Post.

Judge Sutton ordered the case against a negro charged with larceny, dismissed at Scotland Neck, on the ground of insufficient evidence and was hissed by the people in the court room. He ordered the sheriff to bring the hissers before him, but they could not be found. The incident created somewhat of a sensation.

The Secretary of the State has incorporated the Asheville China Company for a period of thirty years. J. P. Howatt, J. M. Stoner and J. H. Tucker are the incorporators. The capital stock is $10,000 divided into shares of $10, each. The business of the company is to deal in china, crockery and house furnishing goods.

Judge Ewart makes the following statement: "The statement made before Special Master Craige yesterday that a hotel bill of mine had been paid by the Tribune Company, whilst I was in Raleigh last February, in the interest of the enactment of a bill conferring civil jurisdiction upon the Criminal Court, western district, is a canard. In the first place the bill referred to passed the House while I was holding a term of court in my circuit, and passed the Senate, I think, the second or third day after I reached Raleigh. The bill was drafted by the bar association of Asheville, and it is well known by members of the General Assembly that I never approached them upon the subject, directly or indirectly."

A Bear Story of Magnitude.

We are indebted to the News and Observer for the following bear story:

Capt. W. H. Basnight, of Roanoke Island, who is on a visit to Raleigh, is the celebrated bear hunter of Dare county. He has helped to kill over four hundred in his time. "The season for hunting bears is near at hand" said the captain, "and it will be a good season. I judge from the berry crop. It is cut off back in the woods and there is plenty on the water. The bears will come out to get the gumberries, and then we will kill them and have fine sport. We ship the meat to Baltimore, after eating all we want, selling it at 12½ cents a pound; we sell the bear's skin for $20, and bear oil sells well."

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

W. B. Harker, of Maxton, was here this morning.

Dr. W. J. Richardson went down to Julian this morning.

Ernest Shepherd, of Winston, was in the city this morning.

Mrs. W. R. Rankin left this morning for visit to relatives at Benaja.

Frank H. Vogler, the undertaker of Salem, was here this morning and returned home at 8:50.

Marion Knowles, a versatile and witty insurance man of Atlanta, was in the city last night.

A. T. Lyon went up to Winston this morning with a line of shoes to display to Winston merchants.

R. D. Johnston, the well known merchant tailor of Winston, was here this morning going to Wilson.

Marshal J. M. Millikan and Deputy J. M. Baley, returned last night from the western part of the state.

B. E. Jones left this morning to sell shoes, first going to Reidsville, and tonight he will pass through going south to be away several weeks.

Miss Pearl Marsh, sister of Mrs. T. J. Copeland, who has been visiting the latter in this city, returned to her home in Randolph this morning.

Chas. E. McKnight, who was thought to have gone to Reidsville yesterday came down on Capt. Stagg's train from the direction of Winston this morning.

Hard on the Kaiser.

By way of Paris comes a story which is just now going the round in the continental press and, if true, throws some light on the freedom of speech which obtains in the dominions of "William the Irrepressible," as well as on the hidden estimate of the speeches of the "Rede-Kaizer" himself. An Englishman was promenading with a friend Unter den Linden, in Berlin, when, in the course of conversation, the son of Albion gave expression to the awful utterance, "The Emperor is a fool." At that moment a police officer who understood English tapped him on the shoulder and requested that he should accompany him to the police station. "What for?" asked the Englishman. "You called the Emperor a fool," replied the policeman. "No, no," rejoined the Briton, "it was the Russian Emperor I referred to." "That won't do," replied the man of law. "There is no emperor who would be called a fool except the German Emperor." The two looked at one another for a minute, when it had fully dawned upon both that there was nothing for it but to part on good terms, vowing mutual secrecy.

Greensboro Gets Them.

Mr. W. Larus, the popular Pullman conductor who has been on the run from Raleigh to Greensboro, has been transferred to the run from Knoxville to Greensboro. Mrs. Larus, whose charming personality has made for her many friends in Raleigh, left for Greensboro last night, which place she will make her home. Raleigh regrets to lose Mr. and Mrs. Larus.—Press Visitor.

Something to Depend On.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discouery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with la grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into hasty consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Ages 6 to 16.

Boys, Listen!

Do you want to earn a suit of clothes for yourself, like the one we have advertised in this space? This is how you can do it: Commencing with today, Monday, Sept. 27, we will run this ad for six continuous days including Saturday, Oct. 2nd; and the boy bringing us the greatest number of this advertisement, neatly clipped from this paper, will be entitled to a $5 Golf combination suit of clothes, free of charge.

Understand these ads must be cut from the legitimate circulation of this paper; you need not try to get them from the publishers, they will not let you have them. Don't depend on your own paper for the ad, visit your neighbors and friends and get them to give you our ad from their paper.

Remember, it is a $5 suit of clothes for one week's work, so you must hustle. You can afford it.

The prize will be awarded Wednesday, Oct. 6th, at 3 o'clock p. m.

The carrier boys and all employees of this paper are restricted from this contest.

Special drive in Children's Leather and flannel caps, beautifully finished in a splendid quality of silk, You can see them most anywhere on the streets. Price 50 cents.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Prof. P. P. Claxton returned to the city this morning.

Capt. B. J. Fisher, came in on the noon train from Asheboro.

Ex-congressman John M. Brower, of Mt. Airy, is at the McAdoo today.

Do you use a typewriter? Read the ad of W. G. Crutchfield in this paper.

Mrs. Dred Peacock, and little son Master John, returned today from a visit to Durham.

L. M. Swink, a Winston attorney, was here at noon, and went home on Capt. Stagg's train.

P. H. Hanes. of Winston, passed here today going home from Atlanta, where he won a suit for $1,300.

Wharton & McAlister have a change of ad today. It will pay you to read. The property offered can be bought on easy terms.

Chas. H. Ireland returned last night from Charlottesville, Va., where he went to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. J. A. Hartsook.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Lindheim and Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Mebane leave in the morning for Old Point Comfort, Va., to spend a week or ten days.

J. H. Gilbert, of Chatham county is here for a day or two, enroute to his home near Mt. Vernon Springs, from Nashville, Tenn,, where he recently completed a business course.

Chas. E. McKnight boarded the train going in the direction of Reidsville at noon today. He didn't say a word about going either, just climbed aboard as the train started.

The well known and deservedly popular clothing and gent's furnishing goods men, C. M. Vanstory & Co., greet our readers with a new ad today. Read it, and watch their space.

We learn that Mr. Sidney Scott, of Graham, who is well known in this city, is critically ill; reports from Graham this morning say that his death at any time would not be unexpected.

The enterprising and excellent mercantile firm of Johnson & Dorsett are talking business to you now through the columns of The TELEGRAM Read their fall announcement on the third page.

The Doggett building is still climbing. The brick work is now above the third story. We are not advised in the matter, but we think the top is nearly reached. It will be a handsome building.

We are much gratified to announce that Mrs. Robert Murray, who was thrown from her buggy in the runaway yesterday, is only slightly injured. It is thought now that the horse, too is not as badly injured as was reported.

John A. Hodgin is moving into his new and handsome residence, corner of South Elm and Bain streets. Dr. E. L. Stamey will move into the house being vacated by Mr. Hodgin, and the local editor of THE TELEGRAM will occupy the house vacated by Dr. Stamey.

When you are looking for a place to buy goods, scan the columns of The TELEGRAM and select a place from the many advertisers who speak for your trade through this medium. The man who cares enough for trade to bid for it is always the man to strike a bargain with. Paste this in your hat.

The owner came after the bag of stolen clothes, captured here by the police some days ago, and carried off the clothes, sack and all. The clothes were stolen from a racket store in Reidsville and the thief wended his way to Greensboro, where one of our argus-eyed policemen captured the stolen property, but missed the man.

If you want to see the grandest display of clothing, hats, shirts, neckwear, underwear and trunks, ever shown in North Carolina, just drop in at the mammoth store of C. M. Vanstory & Co., and see what they have in fall and winter goods, just opened up. Their store is a beauty, and they take pleasure in showing you through every department.

The bicycle business continues to grow. Almost every train brings crates of bicycles. Very often you see single wheels coming to individuals who bought from the factory. Can't we do as well to buy our wheels from our local dealers? If we can we should patronize them. Our motto is to patronize home people and home enterprise as far as possible.

Tomorrow is the closing day of the Matthews, Chisholm & Stroud offer of a $5 suit of clothes to the boy securing the largest number of their advertisements clipped from this paper containing the offer. They desire that all who compete for the prize bring in the ads as early as possible, so the count may be completed in time for the awarding of the suit, on the 6th of October.

Vanderbilt Returned.

New York, Sept. 30.—Geo. W. Vanderbilt, who went to Europe last March, returned to this country by the White Star Liner Germantic, which arrived here tonight. He will go to Asheville, N. C., in a few days. Mr. Vanderbilt spent three months of his time abroad cruising in Spanish waters.

AN IMPORTANT FACTOR.

Greensboro's Industrial Growth and Development.

The Greensboro Industrial Association is one of the most important factors in the growth and development of the "City of Flowers." In a quiet but business-like manner it is doing more, perhaps, than any other medium to attract and establish new business enterprises in our midst.

Without making any great outward display this association is quietly and vigilantly on the alert, always watching, studying and doing for Greensboro. Our people could not well overestimate the value of its efforts.

We are gratified to know that over fifty new members have been added since the last annual meeting. It should receive the hearty and liberal support and encouragement of all citizens who are looking to the best interest of the city. Its members should be prompt in the payment of dues, so that the organization may not be handicapped in any way.but be placed in a position to do what it was organized to do—effective work for the best town in the state.

Last Two Nights of the Show.

But two more nights remain in which to visit Dr. Blue Mountain Joe's show in West's park. Last night another goodly sized audience was present and witnessed an enjoyable program. Tonight new features will be introduced and on Saturday night a grand closing program will be given introducing features never before presented. David McDade will introduce his bounding rope act, Miss Zena in graceful evolutions on the slack wire, and the McDade brothers will introduce their four-round glove contest, Marquis of Queensberry rules. New sketches will be given, which will serve to keep all in a good humor.

Twenty-One of the Bunnies.

Messrs. A. F. Brooks, Jordan, Cobb and Yuille left yesterday about noon for ex-Sheriff J. Henry Gilmer's hospitable home on a squirrel hunt. They bagged twenty-one of the bushy tailed bunnies before they returned in the evening. These gentlemen are natural born sportsmen and can get about as much out of a gun and dog as any quartette you will find. When it comes to hunting they are strictly in it.

Knitting Mills Change Hands.

The George Manufacturing Company has sold its entire interest in the hosiery knitting mills, situated at the finishing mills, to W. E. Stone and associates. The transfer was made at six o'clock yesterday afternoon and the plant will henceforth be run under the new management. The matter has been under negotiation for sometime but final agreement could not be reached until yesterday.

By virtue of a judgment order entered in the said Superior Court at the June special term, 1896, thereof in the above entitled action and of another order made by said court at its August term, 1897., the undersigned Commissioner will sell for cash to the highest bidder at public auction, at the Court House door in Greensboro, North Carolina, on at 12 o'clock midday, or as soon thereafter as may be, the following described parcel of land situated in Morehead township, Guilford county and State of North Carolina, and described as follows, to wit:

Beginning at an iron stake in the edge of the main road leading through Warnersville to Asheboro, on the west side of said road, thence north 81½ deg, west 17 poles 4 links to an iron stake; thence north 17½ deg, east 4 poles to an iron stake; thence south 81½ deg. east 17 poles 4 links to an iron stake, in edge of said road; thence south 17½ degrees west with said road 4 poles to the beginning; being bounded on the south by Dorcas Scott's land; west by Emeline Jones; north by Gracie Waddy; east by Asheboro road; being lot conveyed to W. A. Day by Gracie Waddy by deed dated August 28th, 1889, recorded in book 84, page 659.

This sale will be made subject to the approval of the Court, and will be immediately reported to the Court for confirmation.

This 1st day of Oct. 1897.

R. D. DOUGLAS, Commissioner.

Wise Housekeepers

are now putting in their winter stock of coal. It is cheaper, and better in every way. Dealers are not rushed with orders, and have time to take care and pains. We use scrupulous care. Every bit of the dust and dirt is screened out of the coal we have. You pay us sound money and we give you sound, clean coal—every bit of it COAL. Let us have your order.
